Dear Pastor:

It is an honor to recommend Bro. Mike and Mrs. Glenda Coupe to you as missionaries. I have been privileged to watch God's working in their lives for the past several years. His sincere love for the Lord and willingness to be used have been consistent and have led to his being used to help a lot of people in many ways – both spiritual and physical – over the past few years.

A few years ago, Bro. Mike and I went to India and the Philippines with the Light in the 10/40 Window. In a meeting in Manila, Philippines, he surrendered to full-time ministry and began seeking exactly where the Lord wanted him to serve. He has made trips to India, the Philippines, Costa Rica, and Belize. The past several months Bro. Mike has worked in Haiti, helping to rebuild churches and a children's home after the earthquake. All of these endeavors have been preparation for where God was leading.

Bro. Mike's passion for ministry – whether soul winning, preaching, or pouring concrete – will stand him in good stead as he helps train preachers and build churches in Dominica.

I would urge you to consider supporting this family as your missionaries in the Caribbean islands.

Sincerely in Christ,

Jim L. Brown
